MONOLOGUE

Sometimes, I wonder if I was born into the wrong family. Books are my escape, my refuge from the noise, from the ignorance. They take me to places where cleverness is celebrated, where kindness is a strength, not a weakness. But here? Here, I am just a nuisance. A mistake. I try to tell them stories, to share something wonderful, but they don't listen. They never listen. But I know one thing for sure - one day, I won't need to escape into books anymore. One day, I'll be free.
