MONOLOGUE

Every day, I see children with bright minds, hungry for knowledge. But none like Matilda. She is something else entirely. A spark, a brilliance that cannot be contained. And yet, she has been born into a world that does not see her, into a home that does not value her. It breaks my heart. Because I know what it is to be trapped. To be helpless under the rule of someone cruel. But maybe... maybe Matilda is the change I never dared to dream of. Maybe, together, we can be free.
