CHARACTER

Mr. Wormwood

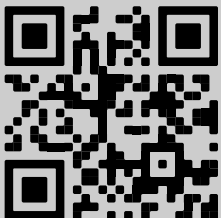

Mr. Wormwood is Matilda's neglectful and dishonest father, a crooked used-car salesman who constantly belittles her intelligence.

This character has a High line count (40 lines)

MONOLOGUE

People always think selling cars is about honesty. Hah! No, it's about confidence! You smile, you talk fast, you make them believe they need something they don't. And the Russians? Oh, they were the easiest marks yet! A little tweak here, a little rollback there - suddenly, I'm a genius businessman! But do I get respect in my own home? No. That little bookworm thinks she knows better than me! What good are books? Books don't make you rich. Cleverness doesn't make you rich. I do!
