This character has a High line count (57 lines)

MONOLOGUE

Discipline. Strength. Obedience. That is what I demand, what I expect. Children are maggots! Filthy little creatures, squirming and wriggling, thinking they can challenge me! Ha! I break them. I shape them. I turn them into something useful, something that understands authority. There is no place for softness in my school. And certainly no place for little freaks like that Wormwood girl. If she thinks she can outsmart me... well, she has another thing coming.
