

SULTAN (Main character)

Tone: warm, bumbling, sincere

Monologue: “Oh dear, oh my... ruling a kingdom is much harder than the books make it seem. I try my best, truly I do, but every decision feels like choosing between two wrong answers. And Jasmine—my sweet girl—she’s growing up so fast. I want to protect her, but I also want her to be happy. Perhaps that’s the real challenge of being Sultan: not the laws or the meetings, but learning when to hold on... and when to let go.”
